

COREY THE DRIBBLER

Former Harlem Globetrotter with an inspirational story.

Corey Rich is a 4-Time Guinness record holder that's been featured on TV and NBA Halftime Shows. Corey travels the country inspiring kids to R.E.A.D., a character education message.

READ - Respect, Education, Attitude/Activity, Don't Bully or Do Drugs!

Respect, Education, Attitude/Activity, and Don't Bully or Do Drugs are the Four Principles he encourages the students to live by. Corey teaches the value in reading and how it led him to win a spot on the Harlem Globetrotters. Students are taught to respect their parents, teachers, classmates, and that bullying is not cool! Corey encourages kids to excel in school while bringing a positive attitude with them every day. Staying active and fit is stressed along with drug awareness.

Steal the ball from the World's Greatest Ball Handler!

Besides an unforgettable ball handling show, students will have fun being involved in several games with Corey, some including even the teachers! The kids will also have the chance to steal the ball from the World's Best Ball Handler! This is truly an amazing experience your students will LOVE!

Audience: K-12 Capacity: 400

Presentation Time: 45 minutes

Set-Up Time: 20 to 30 minutes

Take-Down Time: 5 to 10 minutes

Presentation Area: Performance space can be stage or floor-level; elevated is preferred. If performance space is floor level, please seat students on the floor and not in chairs. If the performance area is a stage, please ensure there are stairs for easy-volunteer access to the performance area.

Arrival: No assistance for set-up or take-down of this program is required.

Assembly Requirements: Please provide an extension cord and access to an electrical outlet. Please supply a PA system with a microphone and ability to play CDs or an iPod over the system. If two or more presentations are scheduled, please divide students by grade level for each presentation – K-3, 4-6, etc.