

Violin Rocks!

WITH GEOFFREY CASTLE

Change what students thought was possible on the violin and give them a new perspective!

Violinist Geoffrey Castle puts the violin back on center stage with virtuoso showmanship and a 21st century style. This performance will change misconceptions about what was possible on the violin – giving students a new perspective on the dynamic history of the original lead instrument.

Experience the evolution of this classical instrument to the era of the 21st century.

Though originating in Italy, there are tradition of playing the violin from all over the world. Geoffrey brings students on a journey exploring the different cultures from which various genres of music have been sourced throughout history, including Celtic, Classical, Middle-Eastern, Bluegrass and Rock.

Empower students to dream big and to fearlessly act upon big ideas.

This presentation combines musical performance and opportunities for student interaction and participation to engage and inspire students. Geoffrey Castle uses his unique abilities and experiences to communicate to students a message of self-motivation and education as an avenue to achieving one's dreams. Students become empowered to have big dreams and to have the courage to act upon big ideas.
