BIKE STUNT SHOW

It's an experience your students will never forget!

Bike Stunt Show is a high energy action sports show featuring professional mountain bike stunt rider Craig Wright. As both a professional rider and experienced public speaker he travels the country inspiring children to achieve their goals and stop bullying in their communities. Craig navigates a set of platforms and obstacles on his bicycle with balance and power most kids didn't even know was possible!

Bullying Education Program

A high energy program education children on bullying. Our program utilizes definitions, information, and recommendations from STOPBULLYING.GOV along with stories from Craig's childhood both as a student who bullied and a student who was bullied.

How to Achieve Big Scary Goals

Craig is one of the only full-time mountain bike trials riders in the country and knows what it takes to achieve big goals. It takes more than a warm fuzzy feeling and this program focuses on picking big goals and why "big" goals are important, overcoming fears and failures, the importance of lifelong learning, and having positive role models and supportive friends
