

Les Trouble PI

Looking for a little less trouble at your elementary school?

Maybe your school doesn't have a big problem with bullying, but you'd like a little more help getting kids to get along. Then it's time to call Les Trouble Problem Investigator! Les Trouble PI and his sidekick Spike will show your students the skills they need to handle little problems on the playground or in the classroom in four simple steps.

Students learn how to solve problems on their own, Safely, Responsibly, and Respectfully.

Les Trouble PI guides students into discovering that getting along takes Cooperation, Communication, and Treating others with Mutual respect during this conflict resolution school show. The four steps to problem solving in peer-to-peer conflict resolution include: 1. Getting The Facts – Listening. 2. Telling How you Feel – Don't Blame. 3. Brainstorming and 4. Negotiation – Everybody wins.

Your teachers will laugh and learn as much as your students!

Students learn problem-solving skills best when they're participating, engaged, and having fun. Les Trouble PI also includes role-playing, volunteer participation, lots of situational humor, and loads of incredible illusions to engage students in the lessons. Students and teachers will be on the edge of their seats itching to get involved in this spectacular 45-minute elementary school assembly program.
