

The bGreat Show

Blends magic and comedy to educate how greatness begins with your character.

In this 45 minute assembly program, Brian Richards will use magic, comedy, story-telling, audience participation, and more to help your students learn about Trustworthiness, Fairness, Respect, Responsibility, Caring, and Citizenship. You want to be great? It begins with you taking the first step!

Audience participation reinforces creative strategies.

Students may laugh and be fooled by his tricks, but your school WILL get excited about character! Presented by one of the most hilarious assembly educators in the country, students and staff alike are sure to be entertained. This program uses the perfect blend of entertainment and education to teach and inspire positive behavior.
